Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel Jesus addresses us with comforting words today: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Let those words wash over us and all the responsibilities we have, all the stresses we're under, and all the failures that haunt us. "My yoke is easy," Jesus assures us, "my burden light." As we gather together on this holiday weekend, let us rejoice in the freedom Jesus offers us from our heavy burdens.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The demands of discipleship are great, but with God's grace they do not become burdensome. After all, our role model, Jesus Christ, is himself meek and humble of heart. Zechariah prophesies that he will come not on a warhorse with force and weapons, but on a beast of burden, offering peace and justice. Paul assures us that God's Spirit dwells in us. Therefore, we can sing in the psalm, "I will praise your name forever." God will lighten our burden.

STEWARDSHIP: We pray that we will be open to the grace to respond to the challenge of stewardship, and that the Holy Spirit, whose gracious action conforms us to Jesus Christ and to the Church, will enlighten us and help us to renew our commitment as the Lord's disciples and as stewards of his bountiful gifts.

A REMINDER: On this Fourth of July weekend, as we celebrate the 244th anniversary of the birth of our Country, let us give thanks to God for the freedoms, rights and liberties we enjoy and be mindful of the multitude of sacrifices throughout the years that have been made so that we can continue to be "One Nation Under God."

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: When have I realized that my expectations had fooled me? Regarding hardships, what have I learned from asking for help?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

St. Augustine News. . .

At the conclusion of the Mass on Sat., June 27, the ushers were unable to locate the bulletins which had been prepared and delivered as usual but had been relocated. Thank you for your understanding; please note that bulletins will continue to be placed in the north and south entrances to the church while we celebrate Mass in the gym.

Now is the time to buy, order or make your parish quilt to be collected in August. Keep in mind that the standard measurements are 90" x 108" and hand quilted. Our reputation for beautiful large sized quilts contributes to the success of our 7 quilt/cash bingos. If you're not in a group or are new to the parish, call Mary Jane Richter (526-4880) or Shirley Schlarman (526-4484).

Work lists for the Luncheons and Quilt/Cash Bingos will be revised this summer; contact the parish office if you have any changes regarding phone numbers, etc. Watch the bulletin for updates regarding our fundraisers.

To anyone who was unable to bring their picnic quilt in last Saturday morning, you may give it to Etta Kampwerth, Dolores Huelsmann, Florence Pingsterhaus or Rosemary Kampwerth at any time. Also you can give any cash donation to help buy material and to help to pay to have them quilted.

Anyone (male or female) interested in becoming a sacristan at St. Anthony's Church, please contact Phyllis Mensing (977-1569) for more information. Thanks for offering your assistance with this ministry!

On Saturdays, we are in need of volunteers to be greeters or ushers at St. Anthony's Masses. If you are available to help, call Phyllis Mensing at 977-1569.

Special Thanks to St. Anthony Parish: On behalf of the agencies, ministries and departments that are supported through The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal and those they serve, please accept our heartfelt gratitude for accepting the challenge put forth by Our Holy Father Pope Francis to "share the blessings which God has provided us" and so generously supporting this year's Appeal. Also, congratulations on exceeding your parish's CSMA financial goal!! It is your Christian caring and generosity that gives help and hope to those in need. Thank you again so very much. God's richest blessings to each of you and your families.
