

JESUS stood in their midst and said
"Why are you troubled?
Why do questions
arise in your hearts?
Look at my hands
and my feet,
and see that it is
I myself"

Dear Friends,

During the Easter season, we hear how the disciples encounter the Risen Christ at different times and in different ways, all the while trying to understand the meaning of the Resurrection. We too contemplate the implications of the Resurrection and consider how we see the Risen Lord in our lives. It helps us to gather as Church, where we can seek the presence of Christ as we worship: in the assembly, in its ministers, in the word of God, in the Holy Sacrifice, and in the Eucharist. Let us pray that we may better discern the Lord in our midst.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: "We are witnesses," Peter says to the crowds, referring to the Risen Lord. We heard him preach repentance for the forgiveness of sins. We know he died for us on the cross. We have seen him glorified by our God. We give witness by keeping his commandments. Luke narrates one of the Risen Lord's appearances to the disciples, in which he calls them witnesses to his resurrection. Assured of his continuing presence, we too are able to sing, "Lord, let your face shine on us."

STEWARDSHIP: Through the Eucharist we enjoy a unique union with Christ and, in Him, with one another. We are called to be a living Eucharist to others as they recognize Christ through our actions, as His stewards.

A REMINDER: This weekend, please welcome Fr. Pat Peter to the 4pm Saturday Mass and the 8am Sunday Mass at St. Augustine and Fr. Bill Hitpas to the 9:30am First Communion Mass at Saint Anthony, as I continue my recuperation from a total hip replacement. I appreciate Phyllis Berndsen at St. Augustine and Deacon Jay Fowler at St. Anthony for doing the Communion Services during the weekdays as I mend.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How do I sense Jesus' presence in my life? When do I feel a sense of peace in my heart?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner:

A monastery is a place where God is sought. Yet, I have always been terrible at seeking. As a boy, I even once forgot to look for my grandmother in a game of hide-and-seek. When I first visited St. Benedict Abbey as a college student in 2013, I heard a call from Christ that I didn't really understand at the time. I loved the liturgy, the fraternity, the whole daily life - but I couldn't explain why I wanted to be here. I believe our Lord called me to seek him in the monastery by my prayer and work, and by charity to my brothers and our guests, ultimately to find him in eternity. Christ sometimes seems to hide himself and call out so that I will seek him more eagerly, but often he is simply hidden by my distractions. Despite my forgetfulness, I am encouraged by his constant reminders and his promise: "Seek and you will find" (Mt 7:7) Bro. Jerome Daignault; St. Benedict Abbey, Still River, Mass.
