Dear Friends,

On this Labor Day weekend, when we recognize all those who work in whatever way they can to provide for their families, their communities, and this nation, we also celebrate the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, praying that together we can work to ensure that the world God made can be enjoyed by future generations for centuries to come. Let us praise God for this wonderful world and the opportunity to work in it.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: God's commands take center stage today. Moses points out that when the Chosen People put God's commandments into practice, other nations will marvel at how just and wise they are. The psalmist assures us that those who act justly will live in God's presence. We begin hearing selections from the letter of James today; James continually emphasized the need to put one's faith into action. In the Gospel, Jesus chides the Pharisees for putting the letter of human rules above the spirit of God's commands. Let us reflect on how we follow God's commandments.

STEWARDSHIP: A life of stewardship depends on the realization that everything we possess is a gift from God and belongs to God. We are all stewards or managers of the many gifts God has bestowed upon us. Our challenge as Christians is to make good use of those gifts.

A REMINDER: On this Labor Day Weekend, let us be grateful for the ability we have to share our talents and experiences in the job, work, career or profession in which we give glory to God through the work of our hands. On Friday of this week, Bp. McGovern will be having Mass with the ASA students and blessing the new classrooms addition.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Where do I see injustice in my family, workplace, community, or the world? What will I do to help bring justice to those who need it in each of those places?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
