

I prayed,
and prudence was given to me.
I pleaded,
and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
I preferred her to scepter and throne
and deemed riches as nothing compared with her.

Dear Friends,

We come here today in various states of disrepair. Perhaps we are worn down by an exhausting week of work. Perhaps we are trying to cope with family or marital difficulties. Perhaps we have been wracked by grief, or guilt, or despair. The truth is that this is the human condition. We're human; we're imperfect. We would do well to recognize this. We need to repent, to forgive, to reconcile. We need to look to God, who makes all things perfect. May Jesus' words to his disciples give us the hope we need: "All things are possible for God."

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Jesus issues a difficult challenge to us today. In order to inherit life, we need to do more than just observe all the commandments. Much more. So much more that the potential disciple who asked him what he must do to inherit life turned on his heel and walked away, crestfallen. Jesus then warns his disciples how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God. But just as his disciples feel like giving up, Jesus gives them and us some much needed hope. May we embrace the wisdom that the first reading encourages us to seek and discover the hope we have in God.

STEWARDSHIP: There will come a time in which we will be accountable before God for the use of the gifts we have received. Have you reflected on the use of your gifts lately?

A REMINDER: On Saturday evening I will be attending the Belleville Diocese Knights of Columbus Southern Friendship Dinner in Red Bud. Please welcome Msgr. Myler as the celebrant of the 4pm Mass at St. Augustine.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Would my face fall if I were the person in the Gospel with many possessions? What can I do to follow Jesus' command?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
