Dear Friends,

On this special day, we celebrate twin milestones: Jesus' ascension from earth to heaven and the commissioning of the disciples. Before Jesus left them, he told his disciples to preach in his name to all the nations, from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth. Then his apostles saw him lifted up and out of their sight, never to return in bodily form until the end of time. As his disciples, let us carry on the mission of the first apostles, trusting that the Holy Spirit will guide us and empower us to be witnesses to the world of Jesus' love and forgiveness.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Besides his Gospel, Saint Luke also wrote the Acts of the Apostles. Today we get to hear the ending of one and the beginning of the other, for Jesus' ascension marks the transition between the two. As Luke writes, the Gospel deals with what Jesus said and did while on earth and Acts begins with Jesus giving his disciples a mission. As we carry on this mission, let us realize how Jesus is still present with us today: in each other, in those in need, when we gather in his name, in the Eucharist, and in the proclamation of the word. Listening to his word now, let us be aware of his constant and enduring presence.

STEWARDSHIP: The unity of the People of God, the Body of Christ, is itself a precious good, to be cherished, preserved, and built up by lives of love. Because its individual members collectively make up the Body of Christ, that Body's health and well-being are the responsibility of the members, the personal responsibility of each one of us. We are Stewards of the Church.

A REMINDER: Today as we celebrate the Ascension, let us recall our own commitment to proclaim the Good News to all whom we encounter. We will also be recognizing our Eighth Grade and Senior Altar Servers at both parishes. I will be in New Haven, Conn. this week (June 3rd thru 7th) with the Knights of Columbus at the birthplace of the Order for a State Chaplain's meeting.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How have I borne witness to Jesus Christ? How will I bear witness between now and Pentecost?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Vocations Spotlight:

"I was blessed to attend strong Catholic parishes and entered the Academy of Fine Arts to study painting, which was a dream come true. Still nothing in my life satisfied me completely. I wanted to grow closer to God and I felt the call to give my all to Christ. However, I was terrified with the idea of leaving my family and my dreams, painting, dancing and children. Then a moment came in prayer when deep in my heart I simply said to God, "OK, I will do it". Suddenly, a peace entered my life like I never experience before. I never knew such peace existed. I completed my school studies and soon went to the convent with my suitcase."
