Dear Friends,

We gather as a community of faith to worship God, to thank God for the blessings we've received, and to be nourished by the Eucharist. It is quite fitting that we give thanks to God when we celebrate the Eucharist, since Eucharistia is Greek for thanksgiving. Today's readings can remind us how appropriate it is to give thanks to God, just as we would thank a neighbor who does something special for us. Let us be a thankful people, expressing a spirit of gratitude throughout our lives.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today's readings extol the virtue of gratitude. We hear first of Naaman, a foreigner, who is so grateful to Elisha and the LORD for curing his leprosy that he returns to offer gifts. In the Gospel, another foreigner—a Samaritan—returns to Jesus to offer thanks after his leprosy is cured. May we be as grateful as them for God's blessings upon us, starting with our "Thanks be to God" for the saving power of God's word.

STEWARDSHIP: As Christians, we are called to stewardship. As disciples who practice stewardship, we recognize God as the Origin of life, the Giver of freedom, the Source of all we have and are and will be. We know that we are recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. We are grateful for what we have received and eager to cultivate and share our gifts out of love for God and one another.

A REMINDER: Please welcome to the Saturday evening Mass this weekend at St. Augustine Fr. Carl Scherrer who will be presiding at the 4pm Mass, as I attend the Belleville Knights of Columbus Diocesan Southern Friendship Dinner in Marion, IL.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I, like the Samaritan, take the extra step to show my gratitude to God?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Vocations Spotlight: "Jesus, I'm done discerning." This was my prayer in the back of a quiet chapel, the summer after graduating college. The Lord's call to me as a child was strong and clear, but the where and when were not. The many Holy Hours I'd spent wrestling with the mystery since had brought no clarity. My prayer continued, "I am spending all my energy discerning when all I really desire is to love you. So, I am just going to love you and love you lavishly. I ask your Blessed Mother to make the rest abundantly clear." Only later did I understand that perhaps it was what the Lord had been waiting for; for me to simply rejoice to be in relationship with Him, to simply let myself be His. The lesson the Lord taught me that day remains ever new, even now after final vows. How much more beautiful is the journey when lived in the simplicity of his Love!"

Pro-Life Corner: "An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care."
