After ALL Masses for

Matthew 25 Food Pantry & House of Manna Food Pantry

Dear Friends,

Matthew structures his Gospel around five lengthy sermons of Jesus and today we hear the beginning of the first of them, the well-known and oft-quoted Sermon on the Mount. It can be a challenge to hear it as the radical departure from conventional thinking that it was when Jesus first spoke these words from the mountaintop. May we ask God for the grace to realign our ideals and realize the kingdom of heaven.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Zephaniah prepares us for today's Gospel, instructing us to seek justice and humility. Paul writes that God purposely chose the weak and lowly, for Christ has become our strength and our glory. Jesus teaches the crowds the Beatitudes, telling them that it is those who are meek, merciful, and poor in spirit who are blessed. So today we sing out, "Blessed are the poor in spirit," looking to the Lord to satisfy our every need.

STEWARDSHIP: The Beatitudes and the rest of the Sermon on the Mount prescribe the lifestyle of a Christian disciple. St. Paul reminds us that God chose those whom the world considers absurd ... so that mankind can do no boasting before God. Being Christian disciple is a rewarding way of life, a way of companionship with Jesus, and the practice of stewardship as part of it is itself a source of deep joy. Those who live this way are happy people who have found the meaning and purpose of living.

A REMINDER: We find ourselves in the midst of Winter. Having to cancel the Sunday Mass last weekend was not an easy decision to make other than the fact taking into consideration the safety and well being of the parishioners. I did contact Fr. Godfrey, the Diocesan Administrator, to inform him of the decision and he confirmed my decision.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How will I allow myself to be meek, merciful, and poor in spirit, choosing to rely more often on God's grace?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
