I will make you
a light to the nations

Dear Friends,
Ever since Christmas we have heard how Jesus was revealed over time to the wider world. He was made manifest to the nearby shepherds on the night of his birth. The magi followed the star from distant lands to the east. Last week we heard that the Holy Spirit descended like a dove, revealing Jesus at his baptism. Today we hear John the Baptist see Jesus and testify, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." We say the same words at each Eucharist. May they resonate with us today and always.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today we are reminded to listen for Jesus' call to follow him. Isaiah realized God's call of service, referring to himself as God's servant, commissioned to proclaim God's salvation to the ends of the earth. Paul recognized that God willed him to be an apostle and today we hear him tell the members of the church in Corinth that God calls them to be holy. John the Baptist points to Jesus as the Lamb of God and Son of God, the one to follow instead of him. May we listen for his call so that we may respond, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

STEWARDSHIP: From conception, Gods calls us to follow Jesus and to make stewardship a way of life. God invites us to accept and to live out joyfully and generously the commitments, responsibilities, and roles to which He calls us. Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, we are challenged to go further in accepting and loving God's will. Being a disciple is a total way of life and requires constant conversion.

A REMINDER: This week on Thursday the Church commemorates a "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of the Unborn Child." Perhaps we could take fifteen minutes and personally or as a family recite the holy rosary for the defense of life.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How will I witness to my faith, to Jesus, this week?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
