Dear Friends,

After celebrating the fifty-day season of Easter, culminating with Jesus' ascension to heaven and the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, we are emboldened to become disciples ourselves, proclaiming Jesus' message of the nearness of the kingdom of heaven through our words and actions. Let Jesus' final words in today's Gospel propel us on our mission: "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." Without cost we have received the salvation Jesus won for us; without cost we are to share this gift.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The Israelites have been God's chosen people from the time of Abraham and Sarah, "dearer to me than all other people," as the LORD tells Moses in the first reading. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that he was sent to return "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" to the fold. We are part of that fold now, "the sheep of his flock," as we sing in the psalm. Listening to God's word today, let us reflect on the privilege we have in being part of the flock we call the Church, rescued from the world of sin by our Good Shepherd.

STEWARDSHIP: The lesson in today's Scripture is the story of God's love for humankind, beginning with God at work as Creator, maker of all that is. Throughout all of salvation history, God's love is always there. The Spirit of wisdom and courage helps people seek pardon and be mindful, in the face of all their forgetting, that the most important work of their lives is to be Jesus' disciples. Disciples who practice stewardship are grateful for what they have received and eager to cultivate their gifts out of love for God and one another.

A REMINDER: Please welcome Fr. Jim Nall to the Masses this weekend, as I will be attending the Illinois State Council Knights of Columbus Officer's weekend in conjunction with the Illinois Special Olympics Summer Games in Bloomington. It is always a joy to see the faces of the athletes as they compete and overcome their challenges to win a ribbon or medal.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Whom do I know, or know of, who is troubled or abandoned? What can I do to bring them serenity, make them feel valued, and restore hope to their lives?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocation Corner:

"Thanks to my parents' strong faith and values, I had the great opportunity to attend Catholic school. My participation in youth groups and the exemplary witness of a parish priest then led me to discover God's call to the priesthood. I also felt called to work in mass media and wanted to make Christ present on what Pope Benedict XVI called the "digital continent." While attending university to study communication, I became involved in apostolates helping young people grow closer to God and His Church. All these experiences motivated me to enter seminary and, after my ordination, to pursue further studies in social communication in Rome. In my 15 years as a priest, I have served in various parishes and in the communications ministry for the Archdiocese of Yucatan. My vocation gives meaning to my life..."
