Dear Friends,

Jesus takes us outside again today, to a deserted place where thousands of people followed him. Despite having only five loaves and two fish, Jesus is able to feed the entire crowd. We gather here every Sunday, a crowd perhaps only in the dozens or hundreds, but where we can all be fed, now with Jesus' own body, offered and multiplied to satisfy us all. We can imagine that we are here with Jesus as he speaks to us and feeds us as he did on that wonderful day, for indeed this is what he does.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: "The hand of the Lord feeds us," we sing in the responsorial psalm, which serves as an appropriate bridge between the first reading and the Gospel. Through Isaiah, God invites everyone to come eat and drink their fill. In the Gospel, Jesus feeds thousands with but five loaves and two fish. In between, Saint Paul boasts that nothing can separate us from the love of our extravagantly generous God. Before we come to share in Christ's body at the eucharistic table, let us feast on God's word.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's readings focus on the fact that everything we have is a gift from God. Through our practice of stewardship, we recognize God as the Origin of life, the Giver of freedom, the Source of all we have and are and will be. We are deeply aware of the truth that "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." We know ourselves to be recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. We are grateful for what we have received and eager to cultivate our gifts out of love for God and one another.

A REMINDER: Please welcome Fr. Jim Nall to the Masses this weekend, as I am in Denver, CO, for the Knights of Columbus Supreme Convention through Friday, August 7 – so there will be no weekday Masses at either parish this coming week.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I feed others this week without discriminating, literally or figuratively?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocation Corner: "Growing up on the east coast of Canada, I was involved in my family's parish, but my faith remained lukewarm. A vocation to the priesthood never crossed my mind. Instead, my attention was captured by the insights in the natural world provided by science, which eventually led me to pursue a doctorate in chemistry at a university in California. During my Ph.D. research, the Holy Spirit led me to ask deeper questions that could not be answered by chemistry alone. As a result, I came to believe the Catholic faith firmly and sought to live it intentionally. During this time, I sensed an unexpected call to the priesthood. The priests serving in campus ministry helped my discernment, and in time I heard God calling me home as a diocesan priest. After my doctorate, I entered seminary and was ordained in 2016. Fr. James Fleming; Archdiocese of St. John's, Torbay Newfoundland and Labrador Columbia Nov 2025
